MEDIA ADVISORY

14th Annual Public Safety & Community Appreciation Breakfast

In recognition of National Police Week, DA Jan Scully will host the 14th Annual Public Safety & Community Appreciation Breakfast.

This year's event will continue a valued Sacramento tradition of bringing public safety members together with public and elected officials, business and community leaders, and individual citizens to show appreciation for the hard work and dedication of those who help to keep our region safe.

Given the recent loss of fallen and wounded officers in Sacramento County and throughout California, this year's event theme is, "Sworn to Protect & Serve: Honoring Our Wounded & Fallen Officers." The public is encouraged to attend and help honor local public safety colleagues and their families for the sacrifices they have made in the line of duty.

Honorees who will be attending include family members of fallen Galt Police Officer Kevin Tonn and Sacramento County Animal Control Officer Roy Marcum and wounded Sacramento Sheriff's Deputies George Eichman, Steve Fonbuena, Eric Henrikson, and Scott Ogden as well as wounded Sacramento Police Canine Officer Bodie.

DA Scully is joined by partners Sacramento Sheriff Scott Jones, Sacramento Police Chief Sam Somers, Jr., the Law Enforcement Chaplaincy and a host of other public safety and fire protection colleagues in organizing this event:
