State of the County Event Will Highlight Airports, Current and Future County Outlook

Sacramento, CA – On Wednesday, November 10, The County of Sacramento and the Sacramento Metro Chamber of Commerce will present the 4th annual the State of the County Event. Presentations will include an overview of the current status and future outlook for the County as well as speakers from the County Airport System and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Bill Swelbar, a leading commercial airline industry analyst who advised Congress on the recent merger of Continental and United Airlines, will be discussing the global airline industry and its relationship to Sacramento County.

The event begins at 11:00 a.m. at the Sacramento County International Airport at the SacJet Hanger. For registration details, visit the Metro Chamber website.

Event Overview:

Host: Scott Powell, President of SacJet

Speakers:

- Roger Dickinson, Board Chair
- Interim County Executive, Steve Szalay
- Airport Director Hardy Acree
- Research Engineer and economic analyst with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology's International Center for Air Transportation, Bill Swelbar

Tours of the new terminal project will also be offered on a first come, first served basis.
