Sacramento County Public Surplus Sale

The Public Is Welcome

Sacramento, CA – Sacramento County will have a surplus sale that is open to the public on Thursday, September 22, from 8:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m., at 9650 Goethe Road, Sacramento, CA 95827. There are no reservations or appointments necessary to buy surplus items.

All items are cash only sales and are sold “as is” and “where is” (only cash and carry and no credit or debit).

Items for Sale include:

- Refrigerators and Televisions
- Computer Work Stations, Tables, File Cabinets, Book Shelves, Office Chairs, Desks and Binders
- Miscellaneous Computer Items, Dry Toner and Printer Cartridges
- Miscellaneous Office Supplies

General Services Department Director, Michael Morse said, “This is a great opportunity for the public to take advantage of some ridiculously low prices for this surplus equipment.”

Please contact Robert Armstrong, Department of General Services, Chief of Support Services at 916-875-5943 for media inquiries.

Independent of this walk-up sales event, the public can use the Public Surplus web-based auction site for government surplus property. Sacramento County has partnered with this site to sell other surplus items. Potential buyers need to sign up for this free service on the Public Surplus website and can then bid on any items from government agencies in real time.
