BALLOT COUNTING COMPLETED

Registrar certifies General Election

Sacramento County Registrar of Voters Jill LaVine announced today that ballot counting for the November 4, 2008 General Election has been completed and official results posted online. By law, counties have 28 days following an election to process all of the remaining ballots.

“The official turnout for Sacramento County in the General Election was 79.8 percent,” said LaVine. She notes that of the 546,660 ballots cast, 46.2 percent of voters cast their ballot by mail, while 53.8 percent did so at a polling place.
