State of Sacramento County Focuses on the Delta

Sacramento, CA – Today, the State of Sacramento County forum will address one of the most important issues facing Sacramento County, the region and the state. The future of the Delta will be discussed by a panel of decision makers and water experts including President Pro-Tem Senator Darrell Steinberg. The key note speaker will be John Woodling the Executive Director of the Regional Water Authority.

The event begins at 11:30 a.m. at the Sheraton Grand, 1230 J Street, Sacramento. Sacramento County will also release its annual report card which provides information about the County's progress towards meeting established strategic priorities. This is the third year of the State of Sacramento County forum.
