MEDIA ADVISORY: Registrar of Voters Update

Last Day to Register for June Statewide Primary Election

Registrar of Voters Jill LaVine announced today that those interested in voting in the upcoming Statewide Primary Election have until May 19, 2008 to register to vote. "We urge everyone who is not currently registered or those who want to change their party and participate in this exciting year of elections to make sure they are registered," says LaVine.

Voter Registration cards are available at libraries, post offices and government buildings.

Key dates for voters
